

ISRSA Conference 2019 - “What no other subject can do”

Monday 18th November

Southwark Cathedral

Room	Desmond Tutu Room	Queen Elizabeth Room	JTW Room	Susanna Barford Room
09:00 - 9:30	Registration in the Lancelot's Link, welcome coffee in the Garry Weston Library
09:30 - 10:10	Delivering OCR GCSE Ewan Brady (OCR)	Delivering AQA GCSE Jonathan Holmes	Delivering Pearson GCSE	Delivering CE Theology, Philosophy, Religion Olie Bullock (Beechwood Park)
10:10 - 10:50	Delivering OCR A-Level Ewan Brady (OCR)	Delivering AQA A-Level Jonathan Holmes	Delivering Pearson A-Level	Prep: Excellence in TPR
10:50 - 11:05	Coffee, Networking and Exhibitions in Garry Weston Library
11.05 - 11.10	Chair's address - The IRSRA vision
11:10 - 12:05	Keynote speaker in main Cathedral Nave The Revd Dr Andrew Pinsent (Research Director of the Ian Ramsey Centre for Science and Religion, Oxford)
12:05 - 12:50	Debate: Humanism, pluralism and creationism. Andrew Copson (Chief Executive of Humanists UK) & Professor Michael Reiss (Professor of Science Education at UCL)	The value of philosophy and religious studies Professor Jonathan Tallant (University of Nottingham)	Using technology in Religious Studies Laura Miller (Eton College)	Prep: Faith and the environment: the work of A Rocha
12:50 - 13:50	Lunch in Gary Weston Library
13:50 - 14.10			AGM
14:15 - 15.00	Debate: Humanism, pluralism and creationism. Andrew Copson (Chief Executive of Humanists UK) & Professor Michael Reiss (Professor of Science Education at UCL)	Preparing students for Oxbridge theology Dr James Carlton-Paget (University of Cambridge)	'Philosothon' Julie Arliss (Taunton School)	Class visits to places of worship help your pupils' learning in a way no other activity can do. Alec Synge
15:00 - 15:30	Senior seminar: How to run and promote Religious Studies Adam Lawrence and Louisa Jones	Delivering Pre-U Emma Rothwell	Delivering Eduqas GCSE/A-Level Mark Lambe	Junior seminar: How to run and promote Religious Studies